ILLINOIS WESLEYAN UNIVERSITY
WEDNESDAY, MAY 6, 1987

*Dr. John L. Clark
University Professor of English and Drama*

Dr. John L. Clark joined the Wesleyan faculty in 1970 as Dean of the University and as a member of the faculty of the Drama Department. He served as Dean of the University until 1976, when he devoted his career solely to teaching and became University Professor of English and Drama. He had previously held positions at Sonoma State College in Rohnert Park, California, and at San Francisco State College. He also taught at Beloit College in Beloit, Wisconsin, the University of Buffalo, New York, and Stanford University.

Clark held several posts at both Sonoma State College and at San Francisco State College. He served as Dean of Faculty and Dean of Graduate Studies at Sonoma State College, where he was also responsible for the development of an Ethnic Studies Program and participated in the development of Robert Maynard Hutchins cluster college.

At San Francisco State College, Clark served on the Executive Committee of the Academic Senate. He was Chairman of the Department of Drama and Professor of Drama and also served in various capacities in the English Department, including Professor of English and co-ordinator of the freshman English program.

An original member of the Actors Workshop in San Francisco, Clark was partly responsible for the development of the Lincoln Center Repertory Theater in New York.

From 1961-62, he was a Fulbright lecturer in English at the University of Damascus, Syria.

Clark's publications include "Educational Dramatics in Nineteenth Century Colleges," in Karl Wallace, et al., History of Speech Education in America, and articles and book reviews in Etc., A Journal of General Semantics; Educational Journal; and San Francisco Chronicle.

He was educated at the University of Wisconsin and received his Ph.D. from Stanford University.

This program is dedicated to the Seniors

From hearts aflame, our love we pledge to thee,
Where'er we wander, over land or sea;
Through time unending loyal we will be—

While life endures, from twilight dream till dawn,
Grandly thy soul shall with us linger on—
Star crowned, our Alma Mater, Wesleyan!
