Alum Becomes International Claim Association President

Oct. 18, 2010

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. – Illinois Wesleyan University alum Marlon Nettleton was recently appointed the president of International Claim Association (ICA) at the ICA Annual Business Meeting at the Renaissance Austin Hotel in Austin, Texas, Oct. 2. The 1977 graduate was elected to serve for the 2010-2011 year.

Founded in 1909, ICA specializes in life, accident, health/medical, disability, workers' compensation and fraud. The company has grown since its inception, to become the largest organization of claim professionals in the life and health insurance industry. ICA members include insurance companies and claim professionals from around the world.
