The Ready Set to Perform at Illinois Wesleyan

September, 15 2011

BLOOMINGTON, Ill. — Alternative rock band The Ready Set will perform at Illinois Wesleyan on Sept. 24 at the Shirk Center (302 E. Emerson St., Bloomington). Doors open at 7:30 p.m. and the concert begins at 8 p.m. with opening act, AudioDax.

Sponsored by the Illinois Wesleyan Student Senate, the concert is free for current Illinois Wesleyan students with a valid ID. Students may pick up tickets at the Hansen Student Center, and can purchase up to four tickets for their friends at a cost of $15.

Student Senate selected The Ready Set group based off of a survey that was sent out last year in which students listed their top choice for a music genre to be brought to IWU. "This concert is going to be exciting because of the different genres of the performances. The Ready Set is alternative rock, while AudioDax is hip-hop/electronic. In this concert, we are trying to please as many students' music taste," said Jill Kawasaki, student senate university events commissioner.
