WATER BURIAL

Korey Williams and Pamela Muirhead*
English Department, Illinois Wesleyan University

Water Burial is an extended multi-genre meditation on the energies that fuel and guide my living. Using poetry, drama, and prose, I tussle with the multiplicity of my identity—the interconnection of race, gender, class, religion, and sexuality—grappling to understand my queer Black experience. Water Burial is also my mode for addressing the sociopolitical dilemma challenging nearly all LGBT people of color, specifically Black queer people (i.e. heterosexism and homophobia within the Black community as well as racism in the white gay community). The process of composing Water Burial involved extensive reading in Black queer theory (Marlon B. Ross, Charles I. Nero, E. Patrick Johnson, Evelyn Hammonds, Laura Alexandra Harris, etc.) as well as Black queer literature (Cheryl Clarke, Audre Lorde, Sapphire, Carl Phillips, Reginald Shepherd, and many others). Water Burial is truly an interdisciplinary undertaking, integrating literary theory, cultural studies, and personal narrative in a creative writing context.
